Good news! Creativity is a skill, not a personality trait. You can grow more creative with practice.

The 5 Core Attitudes of Creative People

Self-discipline: Don't wait for inspiration, build daily habits

Openness to experience: Mindfulness, observation, curiosity.

Risk-Taking: Try new things, experiment, don't fear failure.

Tolerance for Ambiguity: Comfortable with no right answer.

Group Trust: Respect, empathy, open communication.

How can we help our students to develop these core habits of creativity?
